

NORTHEAST AMERICAN DIOCESE OF THE MALANKARA ORTHODOX SYRIAN CHURCH

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE MARTH MARIAM VANITHA SAMAJAM OF PHILADELPHIA AREA

Providing opportunity for Orthodox Christians to learn faith, tradition, practices etc.
of the Holy Church through Christian education program

Divyabodhanam

(Approved by the Holy Episcopal Synod of the Malankara Orthodox Church
And Prepared by the Professors of the Orthodox Theological Seminary)

Name of the Course:	PROFICIENCY IN ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN EDUCATION (P.O.C.A.)
Commences:	On Saturday, February 05, 2011 Classes from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Venue:	St. Thomas Indian Orthodox Church, 1009 Unruh Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19111.
Registration:	Open to men and women. All students must be registered paying a fee of $15.00. Registration must be completed on or before Sunday, January 29, 2011.
Textbooks:	Three Textbooks will cost $10.00. Ten textbooks will be taught in the program. The first book will be: "Prakashathilekku" (In the Fullness of Time) by Rev. Dr. T. J. Joshua.
Teaching Schedule	Classes will be held on the first Saturday of each month. One book will be completed in two months. Questions and answers and the summary of each book are due before the next session begins.
Teachers:	The pool of Teachers: Rev. Fr. M. K. Kuriakose, Rev. Fr. Siby Varghese and Rev. Fr. K. K. John

Certificates will be awarded to all who complete the 10 books in the study program.

Contact Information: Fr. M. K. Kuriakose 201-681-1078, Mrs. Elsa Koshy, Coordinator 215-722-4546, Mrs. Lilly Alex, Area MMVS Representative (610) 429-0982