Blessings to Vicars and members of all our parishes in the Northeast American Diocese, especially our students.

Dearly beloved,

As the summer vacation comes to a close, a new academic year begins for our students throughout the Diocese. This journey for many, brings about new beginnings, pending decisions, potential challenges, and much more. Whatever this journey may bring for you, or wherever it may lead you, always remember the words of St. Paul "...do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God" (Romans 12:2).

May the blessings and mercies of Christ our true Teacher, be showered upon all of our students throughout this new academic year.

Yours in our Lord

Zachariah Nicholovos Metropolitan
